

JOHN KING CLAIMS BRIDE IN NEVADA CHURCH RITE

The Little Church of the West on the grounds of Hotel Last Frontier, Las Vegas, Nev., was the scene of an impressive candlelight ceremony during the holidays, at which Marjorie Smith of Compton became the bride of John King, of Torrance. Vows were exchanged before a flower-decked altar with Rev. Albert C. Melton, pastor of the Congregational Church of Las Vegas, officiating at the single ring rite.

For her wedding the bride chose a slate gray suit complemented by champagne-colored hat and gloves, and she wore black velvet shoes and bag, and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro High School and Compton Junior College. She was formerly a deputy clerk at the Los Angeles Municipal Court. Her mother, Mrs. Lillian H. Smith, resides at Compton.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. King of Compton. He received his education at Narbonne High School, Davis and UCLA, where he is presently in his senior year.

Following a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead, the couple will make their home in Westwood Village.
